New Student Days

New Students join faculty and staff at Eagle Point park for an all-campus picnic.

Ice-breaker activities were some memorable moments from New Student Days.

This year, the University of Dubuque celebrated a Western theme for the 1991 Homecoming. Many alumni rode the "wagons" home to the UD campus. During the week, students took part in the annual "Games on the quad," and on Saturday at Chalmers Field, the football team took on cross-town rival, Loras College. Fans witnessed a fantastic game, but Loras disappointed Dubuque on a last-second field goal to win. Following the game, several fraternity and sorority receptions were held. King Chad Specht, and Queen Cindy Post were honored at the banquet, and a dance was held at the Julian Dubuque Inn. Students, faculty, and alumni together made the week a success.

Little Shop of Horrors ...

When this year's production staff and cast joined together, the result was a stellar performance of the musical Little Shop of Horrors. The cast included Coleen McMahon (Chiffon), Mindy Wieland (Crystal), Marineta Aguayo (Sherrell), Cheryl Harrington (Ronnelle), Michael McMahon (Mr. Mushnik), Christa Wright (Audrey), Jeffrey Olson (Seymour), Tai Teh, Ju (Derelict 1/Audrey II-voice), Brook A.F. Hunter (Audrey II-manipulation), David Peerman (Orin), and Todd Miller (Derelict 2, Bernstein, Snip, Luce).

Crystal (Mindy Wieland), Chiffon (Coleen McMahon), and Sherrell (Marineta Aguayo) provide their rendition of The Little Shop of Horrors theme song.

These UD singers provide the setting of Skid Row, 1958 and delight the audience with their music and theatrics.

Family Weekend at UD

Once again family weekend was a success at the University of Dubuque. Students, family and friends joined together at UD to explore the campus and enjoy a number of special activities. The biggest of these activities was the University of Dubuque football game against Central College. Throughout the weekend students and family members had the opportunity to explore the college dorm life and cafeteria. Along with the football game there was an ice cream social and a comedian for all to enjoy.

ALCOHOL AWARENESS

STUDENTS RECOGNIZE DRUG

For one week out of the year the University recognizes the effects of the drug alcohol. With volunteers, students did many different activities throughout the seven day span. Events included a non-alcoholic bar, wearing a red ribbon to acknowledge no drinking and driving, and a night in which several students got drunk in front of the watchful eye of a police officer.

Four senior students, Chris Cole, Glenda Recker, Chris Vos, and Alex Wolfert, all consumed a variety of alcoholic beverages in order to represent the effects of alcohol on the human body. After consumption, several tests were done on each individual to let them know the warping results of a drug.

With the help of faculty, staff, and students, alcohol awareness week hopefully sent a message to the people who are associated with the University of Dubuque.

Youth and Inexperience Lead Spartans

SPARTANS LOOK TO FUTURE

The 1991 University of Dubuque Spartan football team ended the season with a 1-7 conference record and a 1-8 overall mark. Head coach Mike Messer, in his second season at the helm, went headfirst into a whirlwind of youngsters. After an early season injury to senior quarterback Chris Hyland, the Spartans looked towards the underclassmen for leadership. With only six seniors and nine juniors, the majority of the squad contained the freshmen and sophomores.

Freshman quarterback Scott Anderson, from Belvidere, Illinois, huddles the team and readies them for the oncoming play.

Freshman Loma Smoot, from Chicago, Illinois, shakes off a Wartburg defender. Smoot, along with Randy Koos, led the team in scoring with two touchdowns apiece.

Above: Junior Robert Feight was again voted MVP for the Spartans, leading the team in tackles with 119. Right: Gregg Scharnau was 1st team All-Conference as a punter.

Volleyball Struggles Through '91 Season

Like many other sports at U.D., the 1991 volleyball team turned over a new leaf by introducing a new coach to lead the Lady Spartans. Connie Bandy Hodge entered her first year at Dubuque after posting 127 wins her career at Loras and earning Iowa Conference coach of the year honors in 1990.

With four senior starters, Hodge was greeted with experience but not much security for the future. The underclassmen are a talented group, but it will take experience to win in the notoriously tough Iowa Conference.

The Spartans tallied a 3-30 record and were held winless in the IAC. Senior Vicki Moore was once again named to the second team all-conference squad. Along with Moore, other seniors who will be sorely missed are Lori Johanningmeier, Kristy Preuss, and Marie Thielen.

Lori Johanningmeier, a senior from Luana, Iowa spikes the ball over a Coe College defender, hoping to score for the Lady Spartans.

New head coach, Connie Bandy Hodge, gathers her troops and prepares a strategy to bury her opponent.

Mary Jo Nowachek, a junior from Wyoming, Iowa, blocks the spike attempt of a Simpson College opponent.

Hodge Prepares For Future Success

Mary Jo Nowachek hopes to complete a successful pass to one of her Spartan teammates.

Janel Batten, a freshman from Appleton, Wisconsin, eagerly awaits the serve of one of her opponents.

Vickie Moore, a senior from Washington, Iowa, sets the ball in preparation for a successful spike by a fellow teammate.

The 1991 volleyball team struggled in this year's campaign. However, with hopeful new head coach Connie Bandy Hodge, the Spartans will be looking to turn things around in '92.

CROSS COUNTRY HAS FUN UNDER RIMA

UD STRIDES FOR SUCCESS

The University of Dubuque Cross Country team opened its 1991 season under the helm of new head coach Dennis Rima. The team jumped out of the block early with a fine effort at the Cornell Invitational. "For our first meet I was pleased, and I was proud of the effort everyone gave," said Rima. This also marked the first season that UD had enough women to field a team. "It's great to have a full squad," Rima noted. "We had fun and all of our women will get better as the season goes on." Even though the Spartans didn't place high in any meets, their qualifying times gradually improved. This gives Coach Rima an optimistic outlook on the future. Among the cross country runners there are a few graduating seniors that will be missed: Mike McMahon, Jason Chapman, Dawn Abernathy, Regina Hanrahan, and Felicia Freeman.

Andy Ferguson grimaces as he rounds the final turn in a big meet.

UD Women's Tennis Team.

The University of Dubuque's women's tennis team closed out its 1991 season by finishing with its highest point total and best team standing ever at the year-end Iowa Conference Tournament.

After failing to score a point and finishing last in the Iowa Conference Tournament over the past three years from 1988-90, the local women scored 35 points and placed seventh in the nine-team field at the 1991 tournament held in Waterloo Oct. 11-12.

Both the point total and team finish was the best ever since the Iowa Conference Tournament began in 1982.

At the conference tournament in individual match play, Dubuque had one sixth-place finish, four seventh-place showings and two eighths.

Dubuque finished the regular season with a 4-8 dual meet record.

Men Struggle

University of Dubuque junior Charlie Anderson is the picture of determination as he shoots over a trio of defenders.

The 1991-92 Men's Basketball team struggled to an 11-15 overall record and an 8-8 conference mark this season. With only one senior, two juniors, and the rest of the team being sophomores and freshmen, the team lacked the experience necessary to contend for the Iowa Conference title. By losing only one player, Chad Specht, to graduation and gaining needed experience from this past year, sights are being set high for the upcoming 1992-93 season. The varsity was led in scoring by sophomore Isaiah Johnson. Senior Chad Specht led the team and Iowa Conference in rebounding.

Along with head coach Jon Davison, captains Dave McLaughlin and Chad Specht were featured parts of the 1991-92 team.

A moment was taken before the final home game to honor all the players' parents of the UD basketball team.

New Coach Helps Team Snap Losing Streak

Under the direction of new head coach Jay Schiesl, the University of Dubuque Women's Basketball Team opened the 1991-92 season with a glorious victory over Rockford College and snapped a 34 game losing streak which plagued the team since January 24, 1990. The team was led by Junior Annie Brown, who led the conference in rebounding with an average of 11.2 rebounds per game and scoring with an average of 23.2 points per game. In addition, she broke six separate school records and was selected for second team all-conference honors. Also having a spectacular year was Senior Kim Brandes. She ended her career at the University of Dubuque by leading the league in three-point field goals with a total of thirty-nine and by breaking four school records. The team worked hard to gain their victories, and they look forward to a successful new season.

1992 Spartan Baseball

The University of Dubuque Baseball Team ended its season in glorious fashion by winning its last nine games out of twelve, enabling the team to finish 17-20 for the year and 8-10 in conference play. Their conference record was good enough for a fourth place finish in the very tough Iowa Conference which boasts two nationally ranked teams. Their 17 wins were the most by a UD baseball team since 1986. In just three short years, head coach Dennis Rima has brought the UD Baseball Team to the upper division of the Iowa Conference. During his reign as the head coach, Dennis Rima has moved himself to fourth place on the all-time coaching record list. His players have set or tied eight school records, and his teams have set both the fielding percentage record with a dazzling .958 and team batting average by hitting .308 in 1992. In addition, his team raced in for eleven triples to tie the school mark. Hoping to return twenty-two players, the Spartan Baseball Team looks forward to a successful '93 season.
